

I cannot even believe that even MORE control of our airwaves by the major conglomerates is even being considered! If this passes, there will be virtually no voice heard other than those owned by Disney, AOL and Murdoch. We need to go in the exact opposite direction of what is being proposed, to give the smaller media outlets even a sliver of a chance to be heard.